INTRODUCTION

This handbook has been developed to assist you in your decision to run for the office of Mayor or Councillor in the Town of Redwater and to help candidates in preparing for the October 18, 2021 General Municipal Election. Based on questions most frequently asked by candidates prior to nomination day, this handbook contains information on positions to be elected, candidate eligibility, nomination procedures, the election process and applicable legislation.

This handbook is intended to provide a GENERAL overview of basic information candidates should know about legislation governing general municipal elections and the election process. It is NOT a substitute for the actual legislation. It is the candidate's responsibility to become familiar with the applicable legislation.

2021 GENERAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION

In the Province of Alberta, municipal elections are held every four years. In the Town of Redwater, the following municipal offices are set:

- 1 - Mayor
- 6 - Councillors

At the same time, there will be an election for a school board trustee. It is also anticipated that there will be a referendum question and senate vote.

The Mayor and Councillors are elected "at-large", meaning each person elected represents the Town as a whole and not a particular ward or section of the Town.

All general municipal elections in Alberta are conducted under the authority of the Local Authorities Election Act. You should be aware of the contents of this Act, as there may be severe penalties (including fines, imprisonment, and disqualification from elected office) if you are found to be in breach of its provisions.

As this information is not inclusive of all the information contained within the relevant pieces of legislation, any person wishing a complete copy of the Local Authorities Election Act, the Municipal Government Act, the School Act, or any other piece of legislation should contact:

PURPOSES, POWERS AND CAPACITY OF MUNICIPALITIES

Within Canada, there are three levels of government:

Federal	elected representatives are referred to as Members of Parliament (MPs)
Provincial	elected representatives are referred to as Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLAs)
Local	elected representatives are referred to as Mayor and Councillors

Individuals elected to the federal and provincial governments represent a particular political party (e.g. Liberal, Conservative, Wildrose, NDP, etc.) with the party having the most elected representatives forming the government. Local government is not based on party politics.

As outlined in the book Government and Politics in Alberta by A. Tupper and R. Gibbons, local government is a creation of the provincial government.

“Alberta’s municipalities are legally subordinate to the provincial government as is the case of municipalities in all of the provinces. Under the Constitution Act, national and provincial governments have separate spheres of power with local government falling under the purview of the provinces. Thus, constitutionally a province can create, change and abolish municipalities at will.”

The province provides the structure for local governments by statute with the Municipal Government Act being the primary set of rules under which municipalities operate.

The purpose, powers, duties and functions of municipalities are stated in Sections 3 through 6 of the Municipal Government Act. Generally, the purpose of a municipality is to provide good government, services, facilities or other things that are necessary or desirable, and to develop and maintain safe and viable communities by the power as well as other duties and functions imposed on them by the Municipal Government Act and other enactments.

NOMINATIONS

Candidate packages will be available for pick up starting December 18, 2020. Nomination papers will be accepted from Monday, January 4, 2021 to Monday, September 20, 2021 (Nomination Day) closing at 12 noon during office hours. It is suggested that you call the Town office at 780-942-3519 to book an appointment.

Nomination Form

Every nomination of a candidate, according to Section 27 of the Local Authorities Election Act, shall be in the prescribed form and signed by at least 5 electors eligible to vote in that election and resident in the local jurisdiction on the date of signing the nomination. To ensure validity of nominations, a candidate may submit more than the required 5 electors' signatures. An elector is someone who:

- is at least 18 years old,
- is a Canadian citizen,
- has resided in Alberta for the 6 consecutive months immediately preceding election day and is a resident of Redwater on election day

The nomination shall be accompanied with a written acceptance sworn or affirmed in the prescribed form by the person nominated, stating:

- the name, address and telephone number of the person's official agent (if one has been appointed)
- that the person will accept the office if elected, and
- that the person will read and comply with the code of conduct if elected

In accordance with Section 151 of the Local Authorities Election Act it is an offence for a candidate to sign a candidate's acceptance form that contains a false statement. The offence is subject to a fine of not more than $1,000.

As per Bylaw 862, a candidate in the Town of Redwater is required to pay a nomination deposit of $100.00 to file a nomination paper. This deposit must be paid by cash, by certified cheque or by money order.

A Nomination Paper and Candidate's Acceptance (Form 4) has been attached as Appendix "A" and Candidate Information (Form 5) has been attached as Appendix "A1". Copies of all election forms can be found online at <https://www.alberta.ca/municipal-election-forms.aspx>.

Release of Information

Throughout the election campaign, the Returning Officer receives numerous requests for candidates' contact information. These come from the news media, organizers of election forums and the general public. In addition, the Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs requires contact information for candidates.

The contact information provided by candidates on the Nomination Paper and Candidate's Acceptance Form will be released to the news media upon request and provided in response to any inquiries.

Election by Acclamation

If, at the close of nominations, the number of persons nominated for any office is the same as the number required to be elected, the Returning Officer shall declare the persons nominated to be elected to the offices for which they were nominated.

QUALIFICATION OF A CANDIDATE

Qualification of a Candidate

The Returning Officer is not responsible for reviewing the validity of information contained in nomination papers. If a nomination is challenged, the courts will assess eligibility. If a nomination is not signed by at least 5 electors, the returning officer shall not accept it for filing.

Under the Criminal Code of Canada, it is an offence to make a false affidavit and it is punishable by up to 14 years imprisonment.

Ineligibility for Nomination as a Candidate

Sections 22 and 23 of the Local Authorities Election Act details instances a person is not eligible to be nominated as a candidate in a general municipal election.

As the foregoing information does not detail all instances of ineligibility, candidates are encouraged to consult the Local Authorities Election Act. It is the candidate's responsibility to ensure he/she is not in violation of conditions of eligibility.

CAMPAIGN ADVERTISING

Advertising

In accordance with Section 148(5) of the Local Authorities Election Act, candidates are not permitted to use a facsimile or representation of the ballot produced for Election Day in their advertising. The use of only the candidate's name and an "X" beside it does not constitute a form of the ballot.

Violations under Section 148 of the Local Authorities Election Act could result in a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or to imprisonment for not more than 6 months or to both fine and imprisonment.

Candidate advertising on Election Day is not permitted inside or on the outside of a voting station. The Presiding Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer at the voting station will remove advertising, which contravenes Section 152 of the Local Authorities Election Act.

Violations under Section 152 of the Local Authorities Election Act could result in a fine of not more than $500.

Placement of Election Signage

In accordance with the Town of Redwater Land Use Bylaw 811, campaign signs for general municipal or school board elections do not require a development permit when displayed for no more than 30 days. Election signs are subject to the further requirements of Section 3.2 (7) attached as Appendix "B".

The Town of Redwater may remove sign(s) not complying with the above requirements.

For further information respecting the placement of election signage, please contact the Town of Redwater Planning Department at 780-942-3519.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

The Local Authorities Election Act contains rules for dealing with campaign financing and disclosure. It can be accessed by visiting www.qp.alberta.ca

The legislation is binding on all candidates running for municipal election in Alberta. It is very important that candidates become familiar with the legislation as they are responsible for ensuring that their campaign complies with the provincial laws.

The material that follows is provided for information only. This summary is not intended to replace the candidate's responsibility for reading and understanding this legislation, or to seek appropriate legal or accounting advice from professionals as required. The candidate is responsible for ensuring that his or her campaign complies with all provincial laws.

In accordance with Part 5.1 of the Local Authorities Election Act, candidates may choose to entirely self-fund their campaign; any money up to and including $10,000 paid by a candidate out of the candidate's own funds for the purposes of the candidate's election campaign is not a campaign contribution.

No contributions may be accepted until the nomination period commences (January 1 of an election year for a general election and the day after the resolution/bylaw is passed for a by-election) and a candidate files nomination papers.

If a candidate's election campaign is funded exclusively from campaign contributions from any person, corporation, trade union or employee organization or is funded from a combination of money paid by the candidate out of the candidate's own funds and campaign contributions from any person, corporation, trade union or employee organization, then, on or before March 1 immediately following a general election or, in the case of a by-election, within 120 days after the by-election, a candidate shall file with the municipality a disclosure statement in the prescribed form. Contributions by any person, corporation, trade union or employee organization to a candidate shall not exceed $5,000 in any year.

A candidate must open a bank account in the name of the candidate or in the name of the campaign as soon as possible after the amount of contributions from any person(s) exceeds $1,000 in the aggregate, including any money paid by the candidate out of their own funds. Money in that account must then only be used for the payment of campaign expenses.

Section 147.4 of the Local Authorities Election Act outlines the requirements for candidates to file a campaign disclosure statement with the municipality on or before March 1 immediately following a general election. All candidates are required to file a disclosure statement using form 26, Campaign Disclosure Statement and Financial Statement, regardless of whether they were self-funded or not.

The same official agent or scrutineer does not have to remain at the same voting station during the whole of voting hours. Official agents and scrutineers may change voting stations throughout the day.

Returning Officer Recount

On Tuesday, following Election Day, the Returning Officer examines the ballot account from every voting station in conjunction with the unofficial results. If there are sufficient “valid ballots objected to” or “rejected ballots other than those on which no vote has been cast” to affect the result of the election or the Returning Officer is of the opinion that there may have been an administrative or technical error that may cause an error in the count of votes, then the Returning Officer may make a recount.

Candidate or Agent Recount Request

A candidate, official agent or scrutineer may make application to the Returning Officer within 44 hours (by 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, October 20, 2021) of the close of voting stations and no later. The application must show grounds that the Returning Officer considers reasonable for alleging that the record of the result of the count of votes at any voting station is inaccurate.

If the candidate, official agent or scrutineer feels that a recount should be made under these circumstances, it is requested that contact be made with the Returning Officer as soon as possible.

Candidate Notification of Recount

Candidates who may be affected by a recount will receive 12 hours’ notice of the recount.

Recount Procedures

The procedure for a recount is the same as for Election Day. After completion of the recount, if necessary, the Returning Officer adjusts the ballot account for the voting station.

Judicial Recount

At any time within 19 days after the close of the voting stations on Election Day, any elector may apply to the Court by notice of motion for a recount. Sections 103 to 115 of the Local Authorities Election Act outline the recount procedure. GENERAL INFORMATION FOR ELECTED OFFICE

Time Commitment

The Municipal Government Act provides an outline of duties for members of Council; however, the Act does not indicate the number of hours per week members should spend in performing their duties. In fact, the number of hours per week will vary from municipality to municipality and from time to time throughout the year. The amount of time spent varies from one member of Council to another depending on the number of boards, committees, and commissions he or she represents and the scope or breadth of work for each one. There are certain minimum duties that need to be performed should a candidate be elected to Council. These include:

Council Orientation

External Orientation: In accordance with the Municipal Government Act all elected officials will require orientation training, within 90 days of taking the oath of office, on the following topics:

- The role of municipalities in Alberta
- Municipal organizations and functions
- Key municipal plans, policies, and projects
- Roles and responsibilities of council
- Code of Conduct
- Roles and responsibilities of the CAO and staff
- Budget and financial administration
- Public participation

A regional orientation may be scheduled and is normally a full day in length.

Internal Orientation: In order for the new Council to become fully acquainted with the scope of the Town of Redwater, an orientation will be scheduled near the end of October. The orientation is a comprehensive session that will touch on the major topics relevant to Redwater Council. The orientation is a must to attend as it will assist those elected in the decision-making process. Please note, the timing will change if all of Council is acclaimed (the number of persons nominated is the same as the number required to be elected). If Council is acclaimed, Council Orientation will take the end of September.

Attendance at Council Meetings

Regular meetings of Council are held every first and third Tuesday of the month commencing at 6:30 p.m. and ending usually between 8:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. In preparation for the meeting, an agenda package is prepared for Council members and is available no later than the Friday prior to the meeting to allow time for reading and reviewing the issues. Reading and reviewing the agenda package beforehand allows members of Council to prepare for discussions of the issues at the meeting.

Committee of the Whole meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of the month commencing at 6:00 p.m. and ending between 8:00 and 9:00 p.m.

The Organizational Meeting of the newly elected Council is scheduled for October 26, 2021 commencing at 6:30 p.m. Please note, this date will change if all of Council is acclaimed (the number of persons nominated is the same as the number required to be elected). If Council is acclaimed, the Organizational Meeting will take place on October 5, 2021, commencing at 6:30 p.m.

Attendance at Committee Meetings

Annually, at the organizational meeting, Council makes appointments of members of Council to a number of boards, committees and commissions. These boards, committees and commissions may be Council committees (that is, established by Town Council) or external committees (entities which are established externally but to which Council has the authority to make appointments to).

Alberta Urban Municipalities Association (AUMA)

AUMA was founded in 1905 and has a two-pronged mandate, as an advocate for urban Alberta municipalities and as a service provider for its members. The Town of Redwater is a member of AUMA.

The mission of AUMA states that they will provide leadership in advocating local government interests to the provincial government and other organizations.

In order to achieve this mandate, the Association is dedicated to enhancing leadership in municipal governance by developing and maintaining responsive and professional relations with member municipalities, the provincial government and the general public, and by providing services to member municipalities that support and strengthen their contributions to the well-being of urban communities. AUMA represents a unified voice to the provincial government on behalf of urban municipalities.

Every fall an AUMA convention is held that attracts approximately 1,200 delegates from urban Councils and administration. The convention held during election years is strongly geared towards newly elected Council members. For this reason, all successful candidates are strongly encouraged to set aside time to attend this convention. In 2020, due to COVID-19 guidelines, the convention was held virtually over 2 days.

The 2021 AUMA Convention is tentatively scheduled to be held Tuesday, November 16 through to Friday, November 19 in Edmonton. Please mark these dates in your calendar. The costs associated with attending this convention is provided within the Town's budget.

Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM)

FCM has been the national voice of municipal governments since 1901 and represents the interests of municipalities on policy and program matters that fall within federal jurisdiction.

FCM is dedicated to improving the quality of life in all communities by promoting strong, effective and accountable municipal government. Along with its policy interests, FCM remains a professional association serving elected municipal officials.

The Town of Redwater is a member of FCM and as such, members of Council have the opportunity to attend the annual conference at Council's discretion. Through the annual conference FCM policy on key issues is established. The first FCM Conference following the 2021 general municipal election is scheduled for June 2 to Monday, June 5, 2022 in Regina.

There are a number of other conferences that Council has the opportunity to attend throughout the year, dependent on budget allocations.

Corporate Business Planning

It is recommended that each year Council meet to review the Strategic Plan.

A copy of the Town's Strategic Plan is available at the Town Office. The Strategic Plan is attached as Appendix "G".

STRATEGIC PLAN

BUILDING A SAFE, BEAUTIFUL AND SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITY

MESSAGE FROM COUNCIL

With the identified core values in mind, this Strategic Plan was developed to establish a road map to guide current and future councils. This plan will help council and administration work together toward a shared vision. This plan will help us identify successes and shortcomings while considering current obligations, funding availability and future needs. The Town of Redwater will continue to value regional and industrial partnerships while focusing on local needs to maintain autonomy to best represent our residents and businesses.

TAXES, UTILITY

SERVICES

QUALITY OF LIFE

A ROADMAP TO AN EXCITING FUTURE

Municipalities provide countless services every day that enhance the quality of life of its residents. Municipalities must consider financial stewardship, operational excellence, transparency and sustainability. These are the basic questions that municipalities ask when thinking about one of the most important tasks: strategic planning.

“What are we doing?”

“Where are we going?”

“How can we get to where we want to go?”

MUNICIPAL SCAN

Having evidence and an understanding of the opportunities and challenges the Town of Redwater faces is the first step towards a roadmap for the future - Research and preparation are key to strategic planning success.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE INFORMATION DEVELOPED AND CONSIDERED BY TOWN COUNCIL DURING THE STRATEGIC PLAN PREPARATION:

- The Town has an increasingly younger demographic as people are attracted to jobs related to nearby industry. Being adjacent to significant industry provides numerous growth opportunities.
- There are challenges related to seniors housing and transportation.
- The Town has a strong industrial tax base providing a benefit of non-residential taxes.
- The new Municipal Government Act (MGA) is adding complexity to administrative tasks and is straining administrative resources.

INFRASTRUCTURE

- Aging infrastructure is a significant challenge. (roadways, water, sewer, facilities)
- Infrastructure investment will be required if new development is to be attracted.
- The maintenance and replacement of infrastructure must be considered to ensure quality asset management.

FUNDING

- There needs to be a strong link and balance between resident wants and resource realities.
- The Town is challenged by numerous capital resource needs and wants.
- Financial resources are at risk with the concern of possible reduced capital grants.
- There are opportunities for potential regional cooperation and cost sharing for service delivery and capital investment.

OUR MISSION:

BUILDING A SAFE, BEAUTIFUL AND SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITY

Introduction

This guide is designed to give prospective candidates an understanding of the process and legislative requirements for running for municipal office in Alberta.

It is important candidates read and understand the offences in the Local Authorities Election Act as they relate to their campaign. Offences are in place to ensure candidates run their campaigns on a level playing field and to ensure that candidates are being held to a high standard. Offences are not taken lightly, and if found guilty of an offence, candidates can face fines, imprisonment, disqualification from office, and the inability to run in future elections. If there are any questions regarding compliance with the legislation, candidates are encouraged to seek out independent legal counsel.

This guide is not legally binding and we recommend you obtain a copy of the Local Authorities Election Act and other relevant statutes and regulations.

Local Authorities Election Act

The Local Authorities Election Act (LAEA) is the main legislation that guides the conduct of a municipal election or by-election. Copies can be obtained through the Alberta Queen's Printer, qp.alberta.ca, 780-427-4952.

All definitions, procedures and processes outlined in this guide are from the LAEA. Should you require further clarification on any definitions, procedures or processes you are encouraged to review and consult the legislation, ask the returning officer in your municipality, or seek an independent legal opinion.

All forms required by legislation can be found in the Local Authorities Election Act Forms Regulation, on the Government of Alberta website, or by contacting your municipality.

Municipal Government Act

The Municipal Government Act (MGA) is the primary legislation that governs municipalities. Copies can be obtained through the Alberta Queen's Printer, qp.alberta.ca, 780-427-4952.

Section references noted throughout the document refer to:

- Local Authorities Election Act, RSA 2000, c L-21 (LAEA)
- Municipal Government Act, RSA 2000, c M-26 (MGA)

Before Filing Nomination Papers

This section provides a brief overview of what to take into consideration prior to running for municipal office.

Accepting Contributions or Incurring Expenses

As of January 1, 2019, candidates are no longer required to register or file a notice of intent to run with their municipality prior to filing nomination papers.

If candidates have previously filed a notice of intent to run with the municipality they intend to run in, candidates will still be required to file a nomination paper in order to be a candidate under the Local Authorities Election Act. As of January 1, 2019, the notice of intent to run no longer enables candidates to accept contributions.

LAEA
s.147.22

A candidate may not accept contributions OR incur campaign expenses until the candidate files a nomination paper with the municipality or school board that they intend to run in (with some exceptions under section 147.22(3)). A nomination may not be filed until:

- January 1 of the election year, for general election candidates,
- The day a resolution or bylaw is set for a by-election, for by-election candidates.

LAEA

Are you qualified to become a candidate?

To become a municipal candidate you must be at least 18 years of age on nomination day, a Canadian citizen, and you must have been a resident of the local jurisdiction for the six consecutive months immediately preceding Nomination Day.

Qualification Requirements in a Ward System

In a municipality, other than a city, with a ward system, you must be a resident of the ward or the electoral division in which you intend to run for the six consecutive months immediately preceding nomination day.

LAEA
s.21(2)

Qualification Requirements in a City with a Ward System

In a city with a ward system, it is required that you have been a resident of the city for six months immediately preceding nomination day, not necessarily the ward in which you wish to run.

LAEA
s.12(b)
s.12(h)

Qualification Requirements in a Summer Village

The requirements to become a candidate in a summer village election differ than those in other municipalities. Candidates are encourage to review the LAEA to understand the eligibility requirements in summer villages. Candidates must:

- meet the voter eligibility requirements
 - o 18 years or older,
 - o a Canadian citizen, and
 - o named or have a spouse/partner who is named as owner on the title of property within the summer village), and
- have been a resident of Alberta for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding Election Day.

It is not necessary to be a full-time resident of the summer village but candidates must meet the requirements to vote in a summer village.

LAEA
s.25(1)
s.25(2)(a)

When is Nomination Day?

In the case of general elections, Election Day occurs on the third Monday in October every four years. Candidates can begin to file nomination papers on January 1 in the year of the election, up until Nomination Day, four weeks prior to Election Day. If a municipality has passed a bylaw under section 11(2) of the Local Authorities Election Act, which allows for Election Day to be held on the Saturday immediately before the 3rd Monday in October, the last day to file nomination papers would then fall on the Saturday, four weeks prior to Election Day. Nomination Day is the last day a person may file a nomination to become a candidate in the election.

If a senate election or provincial referendum is held in conjunction with the municipal election, municipalities are not permitted to hold their general election on Saturday.

LAEA
s.25(2)(b)

In the case of a by-election, Election Day will be set through a resolution of council. Candidates can begin to file nomination papers the day following when the resolution was passed up until Nomination Day, four weeks prior to Election Day.

LAEA
s.12(a)(i) s.12(d)

In the case of a summer village, Nomination Day must occur in June and/or July and Election Day occurs four weeks following Nomination Day. Nomination Day is set by council resolution.

s.22(1)

Ineligibility for Nomination

No one is eligible to become a candidate under any of the following circumstances:

- if you are the auditor of the municipality;
- if your property taxes are more than $50 in arrears (excluding indebtedness on current taxes, and indebtedness for arrears of taxes for which the person has entered into a consolidation agreement with the municipality);
- if you are in default for any other debt to the municipality in excess of $500 for more than 90 days; or
- if within the previous 10 years you have been convicted of an offense under the Local Authorities Election Act, the Election Act, Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act, or the Canada Elections Act.

MGA
s.174(1)(c)

If you are a judge, Member of the Senate or House of Commons of Canada, or Member of the Legislative Assembly, you must resign that position before you take office as a member of a municipal council.

LAEA
s.22(1.2)

A person will be ineligible for nomination if they have failed to comply with the campaign finance and disclosure requirements of the LAEA and:

- the secretary (chief administrative officer) transmitted a report in respect to that person, and/or
- the court did not dispense with, or extend the time for compliance.

A person is deemed to be ineligible under these circumstances for either an eight-year period following the day that a report was transmitted by the secretary, or a three-year period following the day the disclosure statement was filed with the municipality (which ever period expires first).

LAEA
s.22(1.1)
s.22(5)
s.22(5.1)

NOTE: If you are a municipal employee and you wish to run for local office, or a school board employee running for election as trustee of a school board, you must take a leave of absence without pay as outlined in the LAEA. This point does not apply if you perform duties for a jurisdiction in a volunteer capacity. You may notify your employer on or after July 1 in the election year (on or after the day council passes a resolution setting Election Day in the case of a by-election) but before the last working day prior to Nomination Day. Any employee who requests a leave of absence without pay in accordance with those conditions must be granted it.

Other Considerations

Time Commitment

The demands on your time while being an elected official can be heavy. You will be elected for a four-year term of office and during that time you will be required to attend:

- regular and special meetings of council;
- council committee meetings;
- meetings of other boards and agencies to which you are appointed as a council representative;
- conferences, conventions, seminars and workshops for training and discussion; and
- other events promoting your municipality.

Time should also be spent reading agenda material and talking with residents, the chief administrative officer and other relevant stakeholders. This work will all be part of the necessary preparation for meetings so you can make informed decisions.

Remuneration

Elected officials generally receive remuneration or other financial compensation for the time and energy they have devoted to their community. As the remuneration varies in each municipality, check with your local municipal office to find out about remuneration for elected officials in your jurisdiction.

Roles and Responsibilities of an Elected Official

As a member of council, you will have the opportunity to significantly influence the future of your community. Your effectiveness as a member of council depends on your ability to be an active member of the team and to respectfully persuade the other members of council to adopt and support your view. Decisions of council may only be made by resolution or bylaw and must be made at public meetings, at which a quorum is present. As an elected official, you will also have to find the balance between representing the views of those who elected you and your own individual convictions.

As an individual member of council, you will not have the power to commit your municipality to any expenditure or to direct the activities of the municipal employees alone. Any promise you make as a part of your election campaign that involves municipal expenditures or the activities of employees can only be carried out if you can obtain the support of your fellow council members in carrying out that promise.

The Canadian Constitution grants responsibility for municipal institutions to the provinces. Through a variety of legislation, the Alberta Legislative Assembly has delegated some of its authority to municipal councils. The legislation you will refer to most often is the Municipal Government Act as this is the legislation that allows for many decisions that council can make.

MGA
s. 7

In accordance with the Municipal Government Act, a municipal council may pass legislation in the form of municipal bylaws. These bylaws remain in effect until they are amended or repealed. You will not be starting with a blank slate and creating your ideal municipality from scratch. If you are running with some kind of reform in mind, you will have to become familiar with what exists, how it has been created – by bylaw, resolution or policy – and why it exists before you will be able to start discussing proposed changes.

Municipalities often make local bylaws available to the public through their municipal websites. Otherwise, you can ask for copies at the municipal office.

Administration of a Municipality

As a member of council, it will be your duty to establish policy for your municipality. It is the job of the administration to implement the policy direction. Alberta municipalities have competent and dedicated administrators. The chief administrative officer (CAO) is often said to be the only direct employee of Council, and you will rely on the support, advice and assistance of your CAO if you are to be an effective member of council. The CAO's training, experience and understanding of how and why things have developed the way they have will be an important resource for you.

How else can I prepare?

The best way to find out what the job is all about is to spend some time reading relevant municipal documents and talking to current members of council. You may also wish to:

- familiarize yourself with local bylaws and municipal legislation;
- read council agendas and minutes;
- observe council meetings from the gallery; and
- talk to municipal staff to find out what other information is available.

It is common practice in many municipalities to publish a prospective candidate's information guide. These guides will provide valuable insight into time commitments, practices and expectations of holding office in that municipality.

Researching now will help you in your campaign and prepare you for assuming office.

Nomination Papers

This section provides a brief overview of the information included on the nomination paper and the nomination day process.

Form of Nomination

LAEA
s. 27

Your nomination must be filed using the required forms (Form 4 – Nomination Paper and Candidate’s Acceptance and Form 5 – Candidate Information). Contact the local municipal office to determine where to get the nomination form and to seek advice on filling out the form accurately. The CAO, returning officer, or municipal clerk will be able to help you.

LAEA
s.27(1)

What is included in the Form of Nomination?

Generally, your nomination paper must be signed by at least five (5) voters eligible to vote in the election. The signatures collected must be from people who are resident in the municipality on the date of signing the nomination, and include the voter’s name, address (street address or legal description of residence) and signature. You may begin to collect signatures at any time but cannot file your nomination papers with the returning officer until January 1 in the year of the election. In the case of a by-election, candidates may begin to file their nomination papers the day following when the resolution was made to set the date. In the case of summer villages, the council is required to set Election Day and nomination day will be four weeks prior to election at the times and location provided for through council resolution. It is often a good idea to obtain more than the required number of signatures in the event that one or more persons were not eligible to sign the nomination form.

LAEA

- Cities with a population of at least 10,000 may pass a bylaw increasing the number of voters’ signatures required to a maximum of 100. Ensure that you check with the municipality to determine the number of signatures that you require for nomination.

LAEA
s.27(3)

- If you are seeking election in a municipality with a division or ward system, the voters signing your nomination form must be residents in the ward or division that are you running in.

LAEA
s.12(b)

In summer villages, the nominators must be:

- eligible to vote in the election;

- 18 years of age;
- a Canadian Citizen; and
- either residents or those named on the certificate of title as the person who owns property within the summer village or is the spouse or adult interdependent partner of the person named on the title.

In addition to the signatures, the nomination paper must also be complete with the written acceptance signed in the prescribed form by the person nominated. If a candidate's information changes, that information must be updated with the local jurisdiction, in writing, within 48 hours of that change.

LAEA
s.28(4)

The returning officer will not accept the following:

- A nomination that is not completed in the prescribed form.
- A nomination that is not signed by at least the minimum number of persons required to sign the nomination.
- A nomination that is not sworn or affirmed by the person nominated (your municipal office may have information regarding who the Commissioner for Oaths are in your area).
- A nomination that is not accompanied by a deposit (if required by bylaw).

LAEA
s.68.1

Official Agent

On the nomination form, you may choose to appoint an elector to be your official agent. This person may act as the signing authority for the campaign bank account and manage aspects of your campaign as directed by you. No candidate may act as an official agent for another candidate.

If you have appointed an official agent, you must include the information on the candidate's nomination form. If, at any time, the information changes or there is a need to appoint a new official agent, the candidate is required to notify the returning officer immediately.

Nomination Period

Filing the Nomination Form

LAEA
s. 27

Once you have completed the nomination form, the next step is to ensure that you file the Nomination Paper and Candidate's Acceptance Form (Form 4), as well as the Candidate Information Form (Form 5) during the nomination period, prior to the final Nomination Day.

LAEA
s.25

How do I file my Nomination Form?

Completed nomination forms can be filed with the returning officer at any time beginning on January 1 in the year of the general election and until four (4) weeks prior to Election Day. In the case of a by-election, the returning officer can begin to accept nomination papers the day following the day when the resolution was made by council setting the date for the by-election.

LAEA
s. 12(d)

For summer villages, nominations for councillor must be received by the returning officer in June or July (or both), in the year of the general election. The date, time and location of where nomination papers will be accepted must be established by council.

LAEA
s.26

Municipalities will advertise in one of three ways:

- in a newspaper, or another publication circulating in the area once a week for two weeks prior to the close of nominations,
- a direct mail-out or delivery of a notice to every residence at least one week prior to the close of nominations, or
- in accordance with their advertisement bylaw.

The advertisement will indicate where and when the returning officer will receive the nominations. It is important to check the advertisement or with your municipality for the time and location to file your nomination papers.

LAEA
s.28(3)

Do I have to file my Nomination Form in person?

Nominations shall be submitted to the returning officer, or their designate, at any time during the nomination period. It is best to deliver your nomination form in person; however, anyone may submit your nomination paper on your behalf. If you are unable to submit your nomination paper yourself, ensure that the forms are completed fully prior to it being filed with the returning officer because, as the candidate, it is your responsibility for ensuring that your forms are fully completed and meet the requirements for filing under section 27 of the Local Authorities Election Act.

LAEA s.29

Do I have to pay a deposit to file my Nomination Form?

Municipalities may pass a bylaw requiring a deposit to accompany nominations. The amount fixed in the bylaw may not exceed:

- $1,000 in municipalities with a population over 10,000; and
- $100 in all other municipalities.

When you inquire or pick up the nomination form from the municipality, ensure that you seek clarification on whether a deposit is required and the amount of the deposit.

If a deposit is required, it must be paid, in full, at the time you file your nomination form. A deposit must be payable to the municipality and may be paid using:

- cash,
- certified cheque or
- money order.

LAEA s.30

Will I get my deposit back?

Your deposit will be returned to you if you:

- are elected,
- get at least one-half the number of votes of the person elected to office with the least number of votes, or
- withdraw as a candidate within 24 hours of the close of nominations.

LAEA s.32

Withdrawing Nominations

Candidates may withdraw their nomination form at any time during the nomination period and up to 24 hours (48 hours in a summer village) after the close of the nomination period, provided the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of positions for the office you are seeking.

If candidates choose to withdraw, they must provide written notice, in person, to the returning officer.

The returning officer cannot accept a withdrawal if the number of nomination papers received, equal the number of vacant offices.

LAEA
s.31

Insufficient Nominations

In the event that the number of nominations filed is less than the number of vacancies in the municipality, the returning officer will be available to receive nominations the next day from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. This process continues for up to six business days (calendar days in summer villages) until an adequate number of nominations are received. If, at the end of the six-day period, insufficient nominations continue, municipalities are required to contact the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

LAEA
s.34

Acclamations

If, by noon on any of the six days described above, the number of candidates nominated equals the number of vacancies in the municipality, nominations will be closed and the returning officer will declare the candidates elected by acclamation (no election will be held).

LAEA
s.35

Requirement for Election

If more than the required nominations are received by noon on any of the days, nominations will be closed and the election will be held according to process.

LAEA
s.12(d)

Summer Villages

In the case of a summer village, the returning officer will announce the time and place when further nominations will be received.

Late Filing of Nominations

The returning officer CANNOT accept nominations after 12:00 p.m. on Nomination Day (four weeks prior to Election Day). Ensure you check with your municipality on the time and location for filing nomination forms and ensure you file your nomination paper well in advance at the location available. Despite the name of “Nomination Day”, it is useful to think of it as a nomination deadline day. There is no need to wait until Nomination Day to file forms and if there is any question of your availability, be sure to file your forms prior to this date.

Candidate Contributions & Expenses

Candidates are strongly encouraged to read and understand Part 5.1 of the Local Authorities Election Act as it pertains to Election Finance and Contribution Disclosure.

Contributions and Expenses

LAEA
s.147.1(1)(a)

What are allowable campaign expenses?

At a basic level, a “campaign expense” is an expense a candidate makes in the course of a campaign to help get elected. Technically, this includes any expense incurred, or non-monetary contribution received, by a candidate to the extent that the property or service that the expense was incurred for, or that was received as a non-monetary contribution, is used to directly promote or oppose a candidate during a campaign period. “Campaign expense” includes an expense incurred for, or a non-monetary contribution, in relation to:

- The production of advertising or promotional material,
- The distribution, broadcast or publication of advertising or promotional material in any media or by any other means during a campaign period, including by the use of a capital asset,
- The payment of remuneration and expenses to or on behalf of a person for the person’s services as a chief financial officer in any other capacity,
- Securing a meeting place, or
- The conduct of opinion polls, surveys or research during a campaign period.

LAEA
s.147.2(4)

Can I self-fund my campaign?

Yes, candidates may choose to entirely self-fund their campaign; however, contribution limits apply to self-funded campaigns. A candidate may contribute up to and including $10,000 to his or her own campaign.

Excluded from the $10,000 would be any amounts that the candidate is reimbursed from the campaign account if it is reimbursed before the end of the campaign period and the funds were used to pay for campaign expenses.

A candidate takes a risk by making expenditures based on anticipated future contributions, in the event that the future contributions don't materialize.

LAEA
s.147.2

Contributions to Candidates

No contributions may be accepted until the nomination period commences (January 1 of an election year for a general election and the day after the resolution/bylaw is passed for a by-election) and a candidate files nomination papers.

*Although contributions cannot be accepted in the campaign period until a person has filed nomination papers, the legislation does provide the ability for a potential candidate to incur expenses and accept minimal contributions outside of the campaign period and prior to filing nomination papers. A person may accept up to $5,000 annually in contributions outside of the campaign period, as well as contribute up to $10,000 of their own funds outside of the campaign period.

LAEA
s.147.2(5)

After a person files nomination papers in the campaign period, the person officially becomes a candidate and may accept contributions of up to $5,000 from any person who is ordinarily a resident in Alberta.

Candidates cannot accept contributions from any prohibited organization, including a corporation or unincorporated organization.

Candidates, or those acting on their behalf, should not directly or indirectly solicit contributions if the candidate knows or ought to know that the potential contributor

- does not ordinarily reside in Alberta,
- is a corporation or unincorporated organization, or
- will exceed the contribution limits.

LAEA
s.147.3(1)(a)
&
s.147.3(1)(c)

A candidate must open a bank account in the name of the candidate or in the name of the campaign as soon as possible after the amount of contributions from any person(s) exceeds $1,000 in the aggregate, including any money paid by the candidate out of their own funds. Money in that account must then only be used for the payment of campaign expenses.

LAEA
s.147.1(1)(c)
&
s.147.3(1)(e)

Contributions of real property, personal property, goods and services have to be valued. Throughout the duration of the campaign, receipts must be issued for every contribution received, and be obtained for every expense. Receipts will assist candidates in creating itemized expense reports and can be used as proof of contributions.

LAEA
s.147.1(1)(c)

Campaign contributions do not include services provided by a volunteer who voluntarily performs the services and receives no compensation, directly or indirectly, in relation to the services or the time spent providing the services.

LAEA
s.147.3(1)(f)

All campaign records of contributions and expenses must be kept for a minimum of three (3) years following the date the disclosure statements were required to be filed. That date is on or before March 1 immediately following a general election, or within 120 days of a by-election.

LAEA
s.147.24

Contributions Not Belonging to Contributor

Individuals cannot contribute to a candidate if the funds they are contributing do not belong to that individual, or if the funds were given to the individual by another individual or a prohibited organization (corporations, trade unions, employee organizations, unincorporated organizations) for the purpose of making a contribution to a particular candidate. Candidates shall not solicit nor accept a contribution if they know or ought to know that it is prohibited.

LAEA
s.147.23

Anonymous and Ineligible Contributions

If a candidate receives an anonymous contribution, the candidate must return the contribution to the contributor immediately (if the identity of the contributor can be established), or donate the total contribution to a registered charity or the local municipality.

LAEA
s.147.31

Fund-raising Functions

“Fund-raising functions” includes any social function held for the purpose of raising funds for an election campaign.

LAEA
s.147.31(2)

Candidates must ensure they record the gross income from any fundraising function held for their campaign. In addition, if the function is held by the sale of tickets, the amount of the contribution is to be determined using the following rules:

LAEA
s.147.31(3)

- If the individual charge is $50 or less, it is not considered a contribution unless the individual who pays the charge specifically requests it to be a contribution. If a request is made, half of the amount is allowed for expenses and half is considered a contribution.

Even if the amount is not considered a contribution, the candidate may choose to still issue a receipt and keep a record of the transaction.

- If the individual charge is more than $50 but less than $100, $25 is allowed for expenses and the balance is considered to be a contribution.
- If the contribution is more than $100, 25 per cent of the amount is allowed for expenses and the remaining balance is considered to be a contribution.

LAEA
s.147.32
LAEA
s.147.4(1)(b)

As a part of the candidate's responsibilities, they, or a person acting on their behalf, must issue a receipt for every contribution received. If a contribution is in excess of $50, the name and address, and the amount of the contribution must be recorded because it is required to be included with the campaign disclosure statements.

LAEA
s.147.33

Loans

Candidates may borrow money only from a financial institution and shall record all loans and their terms. All loans and their terms must be reported accordingly to the local jurisdiction.

Only a person ordinarily resident in Alberta may make a payment on behalf of the borrower (the candidate) in respect to a loan. If the individual is not reimbursed by the borrower (candidate) before the candidate is required to file a disclosure statement, any payment made towards a loan becomes a contribution by that individual and a contribution accepted by the candidate.

LAEA
s.147.34

Campaign Expense Limits

The Local Authorities Election Act allows for the establishment of a regulation that sets out the amount of money that may be spent by candidates during the campaign period. There is no regulation for the purpose of the 2021 municipal election and therefore candidate spending is not restricted.

LAEA
Part 8
s.190-205

Elections Alberta/Election Commissioner

As of August 1, 2019, the Alberta Election Commissioner, under Elections Alberta, has authority in local elections across Alberta. The Election Commissioner may investigate any matter that may constitute an offence under Part 5.1, Campaign Finance and Contribution Disclosure, or Part 8, Third-Party Advertising of the LAEA.

For more information regarding the authority of the Election Commissioner, including contact information please visit:

<https://www.elections.ab.ca/compliance-enforcement/complaints/>.

Campaigning

Once you have filed your nomination form and your candidate's acceptance, there are several things to remember as you campaign to Election Day.

How do I campaign?

There are no "standard" or legislative requirements for campaigning when it comes to municipal elections. A candidate's campaign style will want to match the uniqueness of the municipality to the candidate's personality and available resources.

The purpose of campaigning is to convince the electors you are the best candidate for the position. Candidates have used various strategies, like:

- door-knocking;
- signage;
- brochures or posters;
- participating in local candidate debates or forums;
- social media pages or websites; and
- hosting a meet and greet event.

Is there anything I cannot do during a campaign?

There are a variety of offence provisions included in the Local Authorities Election Act that candidates should review and understand.

In addition, it is essential that candidates seek clarification from returning officers relating to campaign activities. Municipalities may have local bylaws that address campaign activities including, but not limited to, the use and placement of campaign signage throughout the municipality.

If candidates require additional interpretation or clarification, they should seek independent legal services if required.

LAEA
s.116

Bribery

As a candidate, you cannot give, or promise to give, money or any other valuable consideration (such as an office or job) to anyone in return for their vote, or by agreeing to refrain from voting.

In addition, an elector or resident of the municipality cannot accept money or any other valuable consideration in return for voting or not voting during an election.

LAEA
s.117

Undue Influence

As a candidate, you cannot use, or threaten to use, violence, injury, damage or intimidation to compel a person to vote or refrain from voting at an election. You cannot obstruct the voting process or obstruct a person from accessing a voting station to vote during an election.

LAEA
s.150, 152,
152.1

Canvassing on Election Day

Candidates, official agents, or campaign volunteers cannot canvass or solicit votes in a voting station or on the property used for a voting station on an advance vote or election day. In addition, campaign materials (posters, pins, signage, etc.) cannot be displayed or distributed inside or on the outside of a building used as a voting station.

LAEA
s.50

Is there a voters' list?

Municipalities may pass a bylaw allowing for the enumeration and use of a voters' list. You may wish to confirm with your municipality; it is not a common practice to use a voters' list in municipal elections in Alberta.

Pecuniary Interest

Alberta's municipal councillors have a strong record of public service to their communities. As a public servant, you are responsible for upholding the public interest ahead of any private interests you may have.

The Municipal Government Act (MGA) describes pecuniary interest and sets out the procedures you must follow if a matter in which you have a pecuniary interest comes up at a council meeting or a committee of council meeting. These rules are designed to protect the public interest while ensuring that your ability to work is not adversely affected by your election to council.

In order that the public interest is served and seen to be served, it is important that you be open and honest about dealing with the municipality. Be fair to yourself, your electors, and your municipality by keeping your private interests in harmony with the public interest.

This document is only a guide to the legislation. It is recommended that you consult your solicitor for advice on specific situations.

Definition

Section 170 of the MGA describes pecuniary interest as something which could monetarily affect you, your spouse, or adult interdependent partner, or children, your parents or the parents of your spouse (in other words, your immediate family), or a business which employs you or in which you have an interest.

Specifically, pecuniary interest means an interest in a matter which could monetarily affect:

- you
- a corporation, other than a distributing corporation, in which you are a shareholder, director or officer
- a distributing corporation in which you
 - beneficially own voting shares carrying at least 10% of the voting rights attached to the voting shares of the corporation or of which you are a director or officer
- a partnership or firm of which you are a member.

This section also says that "a councillor has a pecuniary interest in a matter if (a) the matter could monetarily affect the councillor or an employer of the councillor, or (b) the councillor knows or should know that the matter could monetarily affect the councillor's family." You must decide when you have a pecuniary interest. Council cannot make the decision for you.

Section 172 of the MGA sets out the procedure you must follow if a matter in which you have a pecuniary interest comes before any meeting in which you are taking part in your capacity as a member of council. Failure to follow these procedures could lead to your disqualification from council.

Pecuniary Interest for Municipal Councillors

Exceptions

Several exceptions are listed in section 170(3) of the MGA so that an overly-restrictive interpretation of the provisions will not disrupt the affairs of the municipality or your function as a councillor.

A councillor does not have a pecuniary interest only because:

- the councillor, an employer of the councillor or a member of the councillor's family may have as an elector, taxpayer or utility customer of the municipality,
- the councillor or a member of the councillor's family may have by reason of being appointed by the council as a director of a company incorporated for the purpose of carrying on business for and on behalf of the municipality or by reason of being appointed as the representative of the council on another body,
- the councillor or member of the councillor's family may have with respect to any allowance, honorarium, remuneration or benefit to which the councillor or member of the councillor's family may be entitled by being appointed by the council to a position described above,
- the councillor may have with respect to any allowance, honorarium, remuneration or benefit to which the councillor may be entitled by being a councillor,
- the councillor or a member of the councillor's family may have by being employed by the Government of Canada, the Government of Alberta or a federal or provincial Crown corporation or agency, except with respect to a matter directly affecting the department, corporation or agency of which the councillor or family member is an employee,
- a member of the councillor's family may have by having an employer, other than the municipality, that is monetarily affected by a decision of the municipality,
- the councillor or a member of the councillor's family may have by being a member or director of a non-profit organization as defined in section 241(f) or a service club,
- the councillor or member of the councillor's family may have
 - by being appointed as the volunteer chief or other volunteer officer of a fire or ambulance service or emergency measures organization or other volunteer organization or service, or
 - by reason of remuneration received as a volunteer member of any of those voluntary organizations or services,
- the councillor, an employer of the councillor or a member of the councillor's family that is held in common with the majority of electors of the municipality or, if the matter affects only part of the municipality, with the majority of electors in that part,
- the interest is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence the councillor, or
- they discuss or vote on a bylaw that applies to businesses or business activities when

Pecuniary Interest for Municipal Councillors

the councillor, an employer of the councillor or a member of the councillor's family has an interest in a business, unless the only business affected by the bylaw is the business of the councillor, employer of the councillor or the councillor's family.”

What to Do

Section 172 of the MGA says that you may not take part in the discussion and decision-making on any matter in which you have a pecuniary interest. The legislation attempts to ensure that you are not discriminated either for or against by virtue of your membership on council.

If you have a pecuniary interest:

- you are to disclose that you have an interest and its general nature
- you are to abstain from any discussion of the matter and from voting
- you are to leave the room until the matter has been dealt with, and you should make sure that your abstention is recorded in the minutes.

For example, you might say “Mr. Mayor, I am abstaining on this matter because I am a shareholder in the company. I am leaving the room and I ask that my abstention be recorded.”

If the matter is one in which you, as an elector or property owner, have a right to be heard by council (for example, a land use bylaw amendment, lane or street closure, etc.), you are to disclose your interest and abstain, but you may remain in the room to be heard by council in the same manner as any person who is not a member of council. In this case, you should follow the procedure required of any other person to be placed on the list of delegations to be heard by council. When the matter comes up for hearing, you might say “Madam Mayor, I am abstaining from this matter because I own the property affected. I ask that my abstention be recorded.”

You should then leave the council table and go to the area where the public sits. The mayor should call you to make your presentation in the same manner as any other person. You should state your case, answer any questions that may be asked of you and then be seated in the public area for the remainder of the public hearing.

When council debates the matter it would be advisable to leave the room during the decision-making process.

Temporary Absence

On occasion, you may be temporarily absent from a meeting when a matter in which you have an interest comes up for discussion. If so, upon returning to the meeting, or as soon as you discover that the matter was discussed, you are to disclose the general nature of your interest.

Pecuniary Interest for Municipal Councillors

The MGA requires the secretary to note your disclosure in the minutes.

The purpose of this provision is to ensure that a member of council does not avoid disclosing an interest by simply leaving the meeting before the matter is discussed and returning after the discussion is complete. If some matter is discussed by council while you are temporarily absent from a meeting, upon your return and as soon as you become aware of the matter, you should get the attention of the chair and say something like “Mr. Mayor, during my absence a matter was discussed in which I have an interest. I am disclosing that my husband is an employee of the company and I ask that my disclosure be recorded in the minutes.”

All Meetings

The disclosure and abstention rules apply to every meeting of council and any of its committees. They also apply to you at a meeting of any board, committee or agency to which you are appointed as a representative of council (section 172(6) of the MGA). In other words, any time that you are acting as a councillor, the disclosure and abstention rules apply to you.

It is important to remember to ask the secretary at any of these meetings to record your abstention and to check that it is actually included in the minutes.

Doing Business

Although there is no prohibition on doing business with the municipality when you are a member of council, every contract or agreement with the municipality in which you have an interest must be approved by council (section 173 of the MGA). So, if your council has delegated purchasing authority to administration, it is important that those officials know of any business interests that you have and that you make sure council approves of any contract with your business. You cannot raise the matter in council, but, if you submit a bid or offer, you can note the matter must receive council approval. If it doesn't, you will be disqualified and the contract has no force or effect.

The following are the only exceptions:

- if the contract or agreement is for the performance of work or the provision of a service in the case of an emergency, or
- if the contract or agreement is for the sale of goods or services to the municipality or to persons contracting with the municipality at competitive prices by a dealer in those goods or services, that is incidental to, or in the ordinary course of business
- the agreement was entered into before your term of councillor started

Statement of Disclosure of Interests

If you have extensive business interests, it may be difficult for you to know when these businesses are dealing with your municipality. It may be even more difficult for purchasing agents to identify a contract which requires the approval of council because a member of council has an interest.

In such cases, it may help everyone involved – yourself included - if a listing of interests is available in the office. Council may, by bylaw, require its members to file a statement with a designated officer showing the names of their immediate families and any business in which they have an interest (section 171 of the MGA). The designated officer then compiles a list of all the names reported on the statements and provides it to the employees of the municipality indicated in the bylaw.

This provision is permissive. This means the council has the power to pass such a bylaw, however, is not required to do so.

Remember

If you vote on a matter in which you have pecuniary interest, you are subject to disqualification, even if you vote against your interest.

Ask to have your abstention recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The rules apply at all meetings of your council and its committees, and at the meetings of any board, commission, committee or agency to which you are appointed as a representative of the council.

If your council passes a bylaw requiring a statement of disclosure of interests, keep your statement up-to- date by regularly informing the designated officer of additions or deletions.

If you are in doubt as to whether you have a pecuniary interest, obtain a written legal opinion from your own solicitor.

Introduction

Congratulations! The electors of your municipality have put their trust in you to make decisions that are in their best interest. Elected office is one of the highest orders of public service. It offers the opportunity to significantly influence the quality of life in your community.

This booklet presents an overview of your responsibilities as a municipal councillor and is intended to help you to understand the powers and duties of a municipal council as a whole and you as an individual councillor. It also provides the context of the Chief Administrative Officer's (CAO) role in the municipality and helps you to understand how vital this relationship is.

The Municipal Government Act (MGA) provides the basic legislative framework for Alberta's municipalities. Council members must also grasp and comply with federal and provincial legislation and regulations affecting municipalities. In Alberta, cities, towns, villages, summer villages, municipal districts, specialized municipalities and improvement districts constitute municipalities. Councils have numerous powers, duties and responsibilities. You will benefit from your time on council as you meet new people and develop a greater understanding of the local government process and its role in your community. Your community will benefit from your leadership, vision, and service. Best wishes for your success, and for the success of your community.

This guide is an information summary only and has no legislative sanction. For certainty, refer to the Municipal Government Act, copies of which are available for purchase from Alberta Queen's Printer Bookstore. It is recommended that municipalities obtain legal advice for interpretation.

Note: Proposed amendments to the MGA that have not been proclaimed as of (publication date) are not reflected in this document. Additionally, as part of the Municipal Government Act (MGA) Review process, all MGA regulations related to property assessment and planning and development were reviewed to support the proposed amendments. The review has resulted in updates to a number of existing regulations and creation of new ones. To view and provide comments on these regulations, visit <http://mgareview.alberta.ca/get-involved/regulations-review/>.

Things to know!

Oath of Office [s. 156]

Before taking part in your first council meeting or performing any councillor duty, you will be required to make and subscribe to the official oath of office. By taking the oath, you swear or promise that you will diligently, faithfully, and to the best of your ability, fulfill the duties of the office to which you have been elected.

Your role

Council is the governing body of the municipal corporation. As a councillor, you will exercise the powers of the municipality through decisions passed by bylaw or resolution at a public meeting and define the policies and direction that your municipal administration will put into action.

Every councillor must understand the municipal purposes in section 3.

The purposes of a municipality are

- a) to provide good government,
 - a.1) to foster the well-being of the environment,
- b) to provide services, facilities or other things that, in the opinion of council, are necessary or desirable for all or a part of the municipality,
- c) to develop and maintain safe and viable communities.
- d) to work collaboratively with neighbouring municipalities to plan, deliver and fund intermunicipal services.

The MGA also provides municipal government with natural person powers for the purpose of exercising their authority. Natural person powers give municipality's similar flexibility to that of individuals and corporations in managing their organizational and administrative affairs. These powers may help a municipality – without the need for more specific legislative authority – enter into agreements or acquire land and equipment. For example, if a municipality has authority to establish a public transit system, it may use natural person powers to contract services and purchase buses. It is important to be aware that natural person powers are limited by legislation.

Council's principal role in the municipal organization:

A council is responsible for [s. 201(1)]

- a) Developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality;
Council's primary role is to ensure that services are provided to citizens and property owners. This involves establishing policies about what programs and services are to be delivered, the level at which they are delivered, and the budgetary requirements. Council evaluates the policies and programs through information obtained from the CAO and feedback from the citizens.
- b) Carrying out the powers, duties and functions expressly given to council under the Act or any other legislation.
Council is responsible for ensuring that the municipality acts within its enabling legislation. A municipality can be taken to court by any person if it is perceived to be acting outside its legal authority. As well, council is responsible for ensuring that the municipality meets all requirements established in legislation, such as the requirement to hold public hearings on certain matters, develop a budget and levy taxes, appoint an auditor, etc. The legislation establishes minimum requirements; however, council can go beyond these minimums, provided that they act within their legislative authority.

Section 201(2) states clearly that a council must not exercise a power or function or perform a duty that is by this or another enactment or bylaw specifically assigned to the chief administrative officer or a designated officer.

As indicated above, council develops and evaluates its policies and programs; it is the CAO that implements them.

To carry out these roles, the MGA provides the following:

General duties of councillors [s. 153]

Councillors have the following duties:

- a) to consider the welfare and interests of the municipality as a whole and to bring to council's attention anything that would promote the welfare or interests of the municipality;
 - a.1) to promote an integrated and strategic approach to intermunicipal land use planning and service delivery with neighbouring municipalities;
- b) to participate generally in developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality;
- c) to participate in council meetings and council committee meetings and meetings of other bodies to which they are appointed by the council;
- d) to obtain information about the operation or administration of the municipality from the chief administrative officer or a person designated by the chief administrative officer;
- e) to keep in confidence matters discussed in private at a council or council committee meeting until discussed at a meeting held in public;
 - e.1) to adhere to the code of conduct established by the council under section 146.1(1);
- f) to perform any other duty or function imposed on councillors by the MGA or any other enactment or by the council.

Your job as a councillor is to work with other council members to set the overall direction of the municipality in your role as a policy-maker. The policies that council sets are the guidelines for administration to follow as it handles the operations of the municipality. Much of your time on council will be spent considering new policies and programs and reviewing the current ones to make sure they are working as they should. In the spirit of collaboration, a municipality may enter into an agreement respecting services with Indigenous peoples or a Métis settlement and is required to consult with Indigenous peoples or Métis settlement when developing certain land use plans.

General duties of chief elected official (CEO) [s. 154]

- a) to consider the welfare and interests of the municipality as a whole and to bring to council's attention anything that would promote the welfare or interests of the municipality;
 - a.1) to promote an integrated and strategic approach to intermunicipal land use planning and service delivery with neighbouring municipalities;

- b) to participate generally in developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality;
- c) to participate in council meetings and council committee meetings and meetings of other bodies to which they are appointed by the council;
- d) to obtain information about the operation or administration of the municipality from the chief administrative officer or a person designated by the chief administrative officer;
- e) to keep in confidence matters discussed in private at a council or council committee meeting until discussed at a meeting held in public;
 - e.1) to adhere to the code of conduct established by the council under section 146.1(1);
- g) to perform any other duty or function imposed on councillors by the MGA or any other enactment or by the council.

In practice, the CEO is also generally the main spokesperson for the municipality, unless that duty is delegated to a councillor.

These legislated duties supersede any duty to any individual or group of residents.

Be familiar with your legislation

Municipalities are often described as “creatures of province”; the only powers that they have are those set out in provincial legislation and those implied or necessarily incidental to them. If you do not have a grasp of the basics, you will not understand what the municipality can, cannot, must and must not do. Although you can rely on the CAO to inform you of the legislated requirements of the MGA, it is recommended that you have a brief read through the legislation to understand why you are doing what you are doing.

The Municipal Government Act (MGA) is the most important Act a councillor should be familiar with. It lays the foundation for how municipalities operate, how municipal councils function, and how citizens can work with their municipalities. The MGA is the legislative framework in which all municipalities and municipal entities across the Province of Alberta operate.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act provides the Government of Alberta’s general policy on access to information and the protection of personal information in the public sector. It provides for public accountability through a right of access to records under the control of public bodies and mandates how a public body is to collect, use and disclose an individual’s personal information.

These are the two most important pieces of legislation that apply to municipalities. Some of the more common pieces of legislation that affects municipalities are listed at the end of this document.

How you can help

Orientation and Training Opportunities [s. 201.1]

Understanding the relationships, roles and the responsibilities of an elected official and the associated limitations, will be critical to your success in the position. Whether you are newly elected or a returning official, you should take every opportunity to learn about your municipality; key issues affecting the community; and governing processes and procedures. It is mandatory for each municipality to offer orientation training to each councillor, to be held within 90 days after the councillor takes the oath of office.

The orientation training must include:

- the role of municipalities in Alberta;
- municipal organization and functions;
- key municipal plans, policies and projects;
- roles and responsibilities of council and councillors;
 - the municipality's code of conduct;
- roles and responsibilities of the chief administrative officer and staff;
- budgeting and financial administration;
- public participation policy; and
- any other topic prescribed by the regulations.

Your associations, Alberta Urban Municipalities Association (AUMA) and the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts and Counties (AAMDC), jointly offer orientation sessions that cover some of these requirements. They also offer conferences throughout the year that will provide invaluable information and networking opportunities.

In addition, Alberta Municipal Affairs provides workshops on the roles and responsibilities of council, councillors and administration. These workshops are offered on a regional basis in the months following a municipal general election and on an 'as requested' basis through-out your term.

If you are newly elected, attending training, conferences and workshops is an excellent way to obtain the information you need to serve effectively. If you are a returning councillor, your knowledge and experience holds significant value for the new councillor.

Understand the financial implications of your decisions

Almost everything the municipality is engaged in will have a cost associated with it. You will spend a lot of time assessing the financial implications of council policy decisions. You will need to balance the desire for municipal services with the amount of property taxes and user fees that the local residents are willing to pay for those services.

Let employees do their jobs

The CAO is your only employee in most instances. You may have a bylaw which states that designated officers report directly to council. All other municipal employees report to the CAO. Staying out of the day-to-day operation of the municipality allows councillors to concentrate on policy-making and program monitoring. Councillors should work with the CAO to keep informed on what the municipality is doing and will depend on the administrator to provide information so that they can make sound decisions. Effective councils set policy; they do not micro-manage or perform any administrative duties. Refer to section 201(2).

Understand and avoid pecuniary interest and conflict of interest

As a public servant, you are responsible for upholding the public interest ahead of any private interests you may have. These rules are designed to protect the public interest while ensuring that your ability to work is not adversely affected by your election to council. In order that the public interest is served and seen to be served, it is important that you be open and honest about dealing with the municipality. Be fair to yourself, your electors, and your municipality by keeping your private interests in harmony with the public interest.

Pecuniary interest is a matter which could monetarily affect the councillor or an employer of the councillor, or the councillor's family. Conflict of interest is a situation in which the concerns or aims of two different parties are incompatible or a situation in which a person is in a position to derive personal benefit from actions or decisions made in their official capacity.

The MGA provides the definition and application of pecuniary interest and the municipality's Code of Conduct for Elected Officials bylaw should define what constitutes a conflict of interest. Know how and when to report either, what to do in each case, and the consequences of not following the provincial legislation or local bylaw. Attempting to influence in any way, any decision in which you have a pecuniary interest is reason for disqualification from council. The municipal code of conduct will also have repercussions for conflict of interest that is not declared. If either is ignored, council decisions may be challenged.

For further information on pecuniary interest, please visit www.municipalaffairs.alberta.ca/documents/Pecuniary_interest_%202017.pdf.

Information is public

All information received, sent, stored or collected by a municipality is public information unless it falls within the limited exceptions under the FOIP Act. Yes, this applies to email and electronic records too. Ask your duly appointed FOIP officer (often the CAO), what the rules are.

The municipality's lawyer is not your lawyer

The municipality's lawyer takes instructions from council as a whole through the CAO. Also, any legal advice received is privileged and is not to be shared outside of council. In a question of pecuniary interest, or if you are facing charges, you will be directed to seek your own counsel.

Municipalities and council members are subject to the laws in force in Alberta. For example, municipalities are subject to workplace safety laws, emergency management laws, environmental law, and employment laws, among many others. Council management decisions have legal consequences, and councils should be aware of legal risks in decision making. Councillors should be open to advice from the CAO and open to obtaining expert legal advice. You are responsible for your own words. Councillors should not make defamatory statements, whether inside or outside of council meetings. You need to be diligent to avoid putting the municipality or yourself at risk of committing an offence or being found liable for civil damages.

Team Approach

Working as a team with the rest of council and administration will contribute to making your time on council a success. It isn't always going to be easy. Your influence as a council member rests on your ability to persuade other members of council to consider your point of view. When an issue is being studied, be sure to express your views as part of the debate.

Disagreements among council members on specific issues are common. The respectful exchange of ideas and opinions leads to good decisions. While working through these debates, keep in mind that you all share the same desire for your municipality to be strong, safe, and viable. You may have different views about how to get there, but you do share broader common goals.

Most votes on a council resolution do not require a consensus of all councillors. As a result, there will be many occasions where a decision is made that you did not support with your vote. However, once the resolution has been passed, it becomes the official direction of the municipality. The health and ongoing success of a municipality is largely dependent upon the ability of councillors to respect and support the decisions of council in principle, despite your personal views during the debate.

Some municipalities have a communications policy in place that directs media through prescribed channels. Becoming familiar with communications procedures will allow you, council, and administration to work as a team and deliver a cohesive message.

These are things that a councillor must know to do their job with integrity. The remainder of this booklet provides information on other aspects of the legislation that a councillor should be aware of to ensure your municipality is accountable to the taxpayer. As a councillor, you are elected to look after the interests of the entire municipality. Council's effectiveness depends on you providing input as a representative of the people who elected you.

Governance

Chief Elected Official (CEO) [s. 150, 154 and 155]

The title CEO may be changed to one that council believes is appropriate to the office, such as mayor or reeve.

The CEO of a city or town is elected by a vote of a municipality's electors, unless council passes a bylaw requiring council to appoint the CEO from among the councillors. In a village, summer village, or municipal district, council appoints the CEO from among the councillors unless it passes a bylaw providing that the official is to be elected by a vote of the municipality's electors.

Code of Conduct for Elected Officials [s. 146.1 and 153, Alberta Regulation]

A council must have a code of conduct bylaw which applies to each councillor equally. The bylaw must establish how council members will behave with each other, employees, and the public. It must also provide for a complaint and resolution process, and for sanctions as outlined in the regulation. This bylaw will help to ensure that all Albertans have effective and accountable representation, and set province-wide expectations for all elected officials. This bylaw must be reviewed every 4 years as councils are elected.

Councillor Liability [s. 249, 275 and 535]

The question of liability may arise as a result of councillors' actions. However, section 535 of the MGA was written to protect councillors from personal liability while acting in good faith for the municipality. This section does not apply in circumstances of defamation and does not protect the municipal corporation from any such liability.

There are several provisions in the MGA that could potentially create a liability on individual councillors. Section 249 deals with unauthorized expenditures and section 275 which deals with borrowings, loans, or guarantees that cause the municipality to exceed its debt limit.

While it is important to be aware of the potential for personal liabilities there is little precedent for the use of these provisions.

Council Meetings [Alberta Regulation]

A regulation defines a council meeting as, when used in reference to a council, a meeting under section 192, 193 or 194 of the Act, or a meeting under section 195 of the Act if a council committee meeting. These are an organizational meeting, a regular meeting, a special meeting or a committee of council meeting.

Organizational Meeting [s. 159 and 192]

The first meeting of council you attend will be the organizational meeting, held within two weeks of the election, or sooner if an election was not required. This marks the official commencement of the term of office and the completion of the previous council's term. This meeting allows council to address preliminary matters such as appointing a CEO if necessary, appointing a deputy CEO, and appointing people to the various committees and other bodies associated with council. If other regular business is to be conducted, the organizational meeting must be adjourned and the regular meeting convened and recorded as a separate meeting.

Regular and Special Meetings [s. 153, 181, 193, 194, 196, 197, 198, and 199]

It is up to council to decide how many meetings are needed to govern the affairs of the municipality. The decision to hold regular meetings must be made at a meeting with all councillors present, normally the organizational meeting. The time and place of a regular meeting can be changed. All councillors do not have to be at the meeting to change the time or place; but all councillors and public must be given 24 hours-notice of the change.

The timing of regular council meetings does not always align with urgent business that requires council attention. There will be times when a special meeting is required. Section 194 of the MGA states that a special meeting may be called if the CEO believes one is needed and must be called if a majority of councillors request one in writing.

Council and council committees can hold meetings by means of electronic or other communication facilities, (Section 199) rather than in person. Notice must be given to the public of such a meeting, including the way it will be conducted. The facilities must enable all the meeting's participants to watch or hear each other, and the public to watch or listen.

Meetings Closed To The Public (In-Camera Meetings)[s. 1(3), 197, Alberta Regulation]

There are times when council or a council committee must discuss something in private. A meeting or part of a meeting is considered to be closed to the public if:

- a) any members of the public are not permitted to attend the entire meeting or part of the meeting,
- b) the council, committee or other body holding the meeting instructs any member of the public to leave the meeting or part of the meeting, other than for improper conduct, or
- c) the council, committee or other body holding the meeting holds any discussions separate from the public during the meeting or part of the meeting.

The MGA and the FOIP Act set out some very limited exceptions in which meetings may be closed to the public. Personnel matters, where it would be unfair to the people involved to have the issue discussed in public, are a common example. In order to recognize specific circumstances that necessitate confidentiality of council discussions, section 197(2) of the MGA allows meetings that are closed to the public where the subject matter falls within one of the exceptions to disclosure in Division 2 Part 1 of the FOIP Act. The exceptions include matters where disclosures could be harmful to personal privacy, individual or public safety, law enforcement, intergovernmental relations, or economic or other interests; reveal confidential evaluations, local public confidences, or advice from officials; or disclose information that is subject to legal privilege.

Even then, before closing all or any part of a meeting to the public, a council or council committee must pass a resolution approving the part of the meeting that is to be closed, and indicate the exception to disclosure in Division 2 of Part 1 of the FOIP Act. All resolutions have to be made in a public session.

All public have the right to attend a council meeting except for someone who has been expelled due to improper conduct in that meeting. The provisions of the MGA regarding public presence at meetings are intended to promote public involvement and the accountability of the local government process.

Council Committees [s. 145 and 203]

If council creates council committees, it must be done by bylaw. The bylaw would establish the reason for the committee, the meeting procedures, and appoint committee members among other things. Council may decide to create a temporary committee to look at a specific issue. There may also be standing committees which run from year to year to deal with ongoing issues.

Council may delegate some of its power making to its committees. Any powers delegated would be outlined in the bylaw that created the committee. Some council decisions, such as passing bylaws or adopting the budget, cannot be delegated.

When council is part of an emergency services committee, it may have specific responsibilities in the case of a local emergency. Council should be aware of what those responsibilities are and how they are to be carried out. The emergency response framework is described in the Emergency Management Act and its regulations.

Procedural Bylaw [s. 145(b)]

A municipality may have a procedural bylaw to provide a standard format for council meetings and make it easier for members of council, staff, media, and public to understand the decision-making process. A procedural bylaw should set the date and time of regular council meetings, provide for the order of business, set rules regarding the proceedings at regular meetings of council, and describe how items may be put on the council agenda and method of distributing the agenda for council meetings, among other things. This bylaw should be reviewed every four years as councils are elected.

Policy-Making and Program Monitoring

Council is responsible for considering the types and levels of services that are necessary or desirable for the municipality. This responsibility involves providing input into the municipality's programs and services (policy-making) and making sure that administration provides the programs and services in the best possible way (program monitoring).

Council policy provides the basis for consistent decisions. Administration is responsible for providing the programs and services to the residents according to council policy.

Program monitoring is staying up to date through information obtained from the CAO and assessing the results against what council planned to achieve.

Public Participation Policy [s. 216, Alberta Regulation]

It is always important for a council to work with citizens to request input and address concerns. Each council is required to establish a public participation policy that will tell the electors how they can take part in important decisions of council that are not otherwise regulated. The policy should identify the types or categories of approaches the municipality will use to engage their stakeholders as well as the circumstances in which the opportunity will be exercised. Examples to be considered in the policy could include holding a 'town hall' to discuss the budget process or to explain the auditor's report. This policy is intended to promote consistent expectations and increases public confidence in the local government decision making process.

Voting [s. 183, 184, 185, and 172]

Council makes decisions. Under the MGA, a councillor is required to vote on all resolutions and bylaws unless required or permitted to abstain from voting under other legislated provisions or the Code of Conduct Bylaw. Council must ensure that each abstention and the reason for it are recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

If there is a public hearing on a proposed bylaw or resolution, a councillor must abstain from voting on the bylaw or resolution if they were absent from all of a public hearing, and may abstain if absent for a part of a public hearing. Section 172 of the MGA states that councillors must also abstain from voting on matters in which they have a pecuniary interest.

At any time before a vote is taken, a councillor may request that the vote be recorded. The minutes must show the names of the councillors present and how they voted.

Each councillor has one vote. A resolution is passed by receiving the majority of votes from the councillors in attendance at the meeting. When there is a tie vote on a resolution, it is defeated.

A quorum must be present at a council meeting for any resolution or bylaw to be valid. A quorum is a majority of councillors making up the municipal council. For example, if council consists of seven councillors (including the CEO); four councillors would constitute a quorum.

Administration

Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) [s. 153.1, 205, 205.1, 207, 208, and 209]

Every council must establish, by bylaw, a position of CAO. The CAO is an integral advisor to council in supporting the development and implementation of strategic objectives and policies. The CAO builds strong working relationships with stakeholders and provides mentorship and strategic guidance to their staff by fostering a culture of municipal excellence throughout the organization.

A primary duty of the CAO is to provide the same information to all councillors. When a councillor asks the CAO a question, it is their duty to provide that same information to all other councillors.

The CAO works collaboratively with council in building the community and effectively representing the interest of the municipality. As the administrative leader, the CAO will mentor, coach, and guide the performance of municipal staff to meet the needs of the community through public service excellence and a high degree of personal initiative.

A performance appraisal system for the CAO is a key building block for a lasting and positive relationship between council and the CAO. Even though the current relationship may be good, a formal appraisal process provides the opportunity to discuss opportunities for improvement. The MGA therefore requires that council provide the CAO with an annual written performance evaluation.

Designated Officers (s. 209 and 210)

A CAO may delegate any of his or her powers, duties, or functions to a designated officer or an employee. Designated officer positions are established by bylaw and are under the CAO's supervision, unless otherwise provided by bylaw. A designated officer may also delegate any of those powers, duties, or functions to an employee of the municipality. When a designated officer position has not been assigned, that duty falls back on the CAO.

Policies

The importance of policies is paramount in providing consistency and transparency to the CAO and the tax payer. Most successful municipalities maintain a policy manual with an index to enable easy reference. Policies should be approved by council, and should be periodically reviewed and updated to ensure they are still relevant.

Staff Development

Human resources are as important as financial resources. A variety of educational opportunities are available for both new and experienced municipal administrators. The most successful municipalities encourage staff development and training to ensure that their employees are able to effectively carry out their duties and stay familiar with new developments in the field of municipal administration.

Finance

The majority of activities that take place in any municipality have a cost associated with them. As a member of council, you will spend a substantial amount of time assessing the financial implications of council decisions on the local taxpayers.

Operating and Capital Budgets [s. 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 283.1]

The budget is the center of the municipal finance system. The priorities of council will necessarily be reflected in the funding priorities established in the budget. Through the budget, council sets the municipality's priorities for the next year (or number of years) by allocating funding for each program, service, or project. Careful and realistic budget planning and control can translate into better and more cost-effective services for the community.

Best practices indicate that sustainable municipalities have a strategic plan that maps out longer term goals and identifies the municipality's priorities over a number of years. A strategic plan can provide year to year guidance and direction to the annual budget process, and provides the longer-term context for annual goals.

The MGA requires that every municipality adopt an annual operating and a capital budget or a single annual budget that incorporates both operating and capital items. Property and business tax bylaws cannot be passed until a budget has been adopted. Municipal budgets must include sufficient revenues to cover planned expenditures. Reserve funds may be used to balance the budget. Municipalities are not permitted to allow the accumulated surplus, net of equity in tangible capital assets, to be less than zero.

The operating budget is a detailed estimate of how much your municipality needs to spend to meet its ongoing financial obligations and provide programs and services to the residents. The capital budget identifies the sources and uses of funding for fixed assets such as buildings, roads, vehicles, water and sewer facilities, and land.

Beginning in 2020, municipalities are required to have written three-year financial and five year capital plans in addition to the annual budget. Financial plans must identify expected revenues and expenditures as well as project the annual and accumulated surplus or deficit. The capital plan must meet the minimum of five years but a longer term plan is encouraged. The plan must identify planned capital property additions as well as allocated or anticipated sources of funding. Both the capital plan and operational plan must be reviewed and updated annually.

The budget is one of, if not the most, important council policy decision Council should receive regular reports from administration that compare actual financial results to the budget.

Procedure for Expenditure Authorization [s. 248 and 249]

Each council must establish procedures to authorize and verify expenditures that are not included in a budget. Such policies typically set thresholds for at what level the CAO or his/her designate can make an expenditure not included in the budget and when those expenditures must be brought to council for approval.

It is also important to note that if you, as a councillor, make an unauthorized expenditure, or vote to spend granted or borrowed funds for a purpose other than that for which they were granted or borrowed, you could be held personally liable under section 249 of the MGA for the amount of the expenditure, grant, or borrowing.

Borrowing [s. 249, 252, and 275]

The Minister of Municipal Affairs has, by regulation, established municipal debt and debt service limits. As long as a municipality is within the limits, no provincial approvals are required for borrowing, but the Minister's approval is required for any borrowing beyond the debt limits. If you vote for a borrowing that puts the municipality above the regulated debt or debt service limit, you could be held personally liable for the amount of the borrowing, unless the borrowing is approved by the Minister.

Auditor [s. 276, 277, 278, and 280; Alberta Regulation 313/2000]

Each council must appoint an auditor for the municipality and must submit audited financial statements and an audited financial information return to the Minister of Municipal Affairs by May 1 of each year. In addition, the financial statements or a summary of them must be made available to the public by May 1 of each year. The financial statements must disclose the municipality's debt limits, as well as the salaries of the CEO, individual councillors, the CAO, and the designated officers of the municipality.

Property Assessment, Taxation, and Other Revenues

Assessment [s. 285, 298, 454, 454.1, 454.2, 454.3, 460, 460.1, 468, and 470]

Property assessment is the process of assigning a dollar value to a property for taxation purposes. In Alberta property is taxed based on the ad valorem principle. Ad valorem means “according to value.” This means that the amount of tax paid is based on the value of the property.

Assessments for all types of property are prepared by professional, certified assessors. Provincial assessors designated by the Minister of Municipal Affairs assess designated industrial property, while municipal assessors employed or contracted by municipalities assess all other types of property. Under provincial legislation, a council must appoint, by bylaw, a designated municipal assessor. A designated assessor is responsible for the completion of a number of tasks laid out by provincial legislation and regulations.

After the assessed value of a property has been determined, the property is assigned an assessment class. The assessment class determines the tax rate that will be applied to each property, as assessment classes may have different tax rates.

The municipal assessor is responsible for assigning assessment classes to property. Property is classified according to its actual use. The classes set out in the MGA are Class 1 – residential; Class 2 – non-residential; Class 3 – farmland; and Class 4 – machinery and equipment.

To ensure that property owners have a voice in the property assessment system, the MGA has set out a complaints and appeals system for property owners who have concerns about their assessment.

Property Taxation [s. 242, 297, 318, 354, 355, 356, and 359.1]

Each year, municipal councils determine the amount of money they need to operate their municipality through the budget process. From this amount, the council then subtracts known revenues (for example, licences, grants, and permits). The remainder is the amount of money the municipality needs to raise through property taxes in order to provide services for the year.

Very simply, the revenue requirement divided by the total assessment equals the tax rate.

The tax rate is applied to each individual property assessment using the following formula:

Property assessment x Tax rate = Taxes payable.

Council is required to pass a property tax bylaw annually (Section 353). Council may set different municipal tax rates for each of the four assessment classes each year; however the difference between non-residential and residential tax rates can be no more than 5:1. Council may also set different tax rates for vacant and improved non-residential property and for different sub-classes of residential property. Council can only affect the tax rate by changing the revenue requirement (budget).

In addition to municipal tax rates, municipalities must set tax rates to raise funds that are requisitioned for cost sharing programs such as the Alberta School Foundation Fund and seniors lodges, etc.

Once the tax notices are mailed, the property tax rate bylaw cannot be amended unless approved by Ministerial Order.

Education Tax and Equalized Assessment

Property assessment is used as the basis on which to requisition property taxes from all or a number of municipalities for the financial support of several regional and provincial programs. Equalized assessment is a process that levels the playing field for municipalities so that property tax requisitions and grants can be fairly allocated.

Just as property owners pay taxes in proportion to the value of the property they own, municipalities are required to contribute to the provincial education and other requisitions based on the proportion of assessment within their jurisdictions. Equalized assessments are used to determine the specific contributions to be made by each municipality, and they are also used in formulas for provincial grants to municipalities.

Inter-municipal fairness and equity is important when requisitioning property taxes from municipalities or calculating grants. In this regard, it is usually necessary to make some adjustments in the assessment base figures that each municipality reports to the province before those assessments are used to determine each municipality's contribution to a regional or provincial program, or its equitable share of grant dollars. These adjustments are made through the equalized assessment process.

The MGA requires that most properties be assessed at market value. Ideally, all properties would be assessed at 100 per cent of market value. In practice, however, assessments may vary from market value to a limited degree. Because this variance may occur, equalization is used to adjust each municipality's assessments to 100 per cent of market value. The equalization process removes the variations in assessment levels to make the assessment bases more comparable among municipalities. The process produces a set of adjusted, or "equalized," assessments that can then be used to distribute requisitions*, or allocate grants, among municipalities in a fair and equitable manner."

Planning and Development

Council shapes the physical future of the community through its authority over land-use planning and development control. It is the responsibility of council to focus on the future of the community as a whole while balancing the current rights, needs and concerns of property owners and residents. The purpose of planning is to achieve the orderly, economical and beneficial development, use of land and settlement without infringing on the rights of individuals, except as necessary for the community. A number of tools are available to council for this purpose.

The MGA identifies the hierarchy and relationship of statutory plans. The order is:

Intermunicipal Development Plans (IDPs) – all other plans must be consistent with the IDP.

Municipal Development Plans (MDPs) must be consistent with the IDP.

Area Structure Plans (ASPs) and Area Redevelopment Plans (ARDs) must be consistent with any MDP and IDPs. The IDP prevails to the extent of the conflict or inconsistency between the plans.

ALSA Regional Plan (ALSA s. 20, 21, and 22; MGA s. 630.2 and 638.1)

Alberta Land Stewardship Act (ALSA) regional plans inform land-use decisions. They build on existing policies and initiatives by establishing a set of strategic directions to achieve the regional vision and outcomes, include regional objectives, strategies and actions undertaken to support achievement of the regional vision and outcomes and indicators to measure and evaluate progress and enable achieving the strategic direction and strategies and actions. Under ALSA, land-use decision-makers and the provincial government will coordinate their planning and decision-making.

The current MGA land-use policies will be phased out as new regional plans under the ALSA come into force. The MGA will provide authority, through regulation, to create land-use policies for municipal planning matters that are not included in a regional plan.

Where there is an approved ALSA regional plan, the subdivision authority, development authority, municipal planning commission, and subdivision and development appeal board of the municipalities within that region must act in accordance with the applicable ALSA regional plan's policies and outcomes.

Intermunicipal Development Plan [s. 631]

Two or more municipalities must adopt an inter-municipal plan (IDP) (within two years of MGA amendments being proclaimed) to address issues of mutual concern with respect to designated lands. The plan must provide for the future use of land, the manner of and proposals for future development, the provision of transportation systems and environmental matters, the co-ordination of intermunicipal programs, or other matters relating to the area. The plan must include a procedure to resolve, or attempt to resolve, conflicts; a procedure to amend or repeal the plan; and provisions relating to plan administration. The Minister may require two (2) or more municipalities to enter into an inter-municipal development plan. A Growth Management Board (GMB) is required to create a framework only for those matters that are not addressed in the growth plan. GMB members must create a framework with non-GMB municipalities where there is a common boundary.

Municipal Development Plan [s. 632 and 636]

Every council with a population greater than 3500 must adopt a municipal development plan (MDP). The MDP provides a general framework for development within the municipality and is the official statement of your municipality's policies concerning the desired future pattern of development. The municipality must afford opportunity to affected persons as well as neighbouring municipalities to review and make comment on the plan. Inter-municipal issues such as coordination of land use and infrastructure must be addressed in the municipality's own municipal development plan when there is not an IDP respecting these matters.

Area Structure and Redevelopment Plans [s. 633, 634, 635, and 636]

Council may, by bylaw, adopt an area structure plan (ASP) to provide a framework for subdivision and development for a particular area. The area structure plan will generally describe the sequences of development, proposed land use, population density, and the location of major transportation routes and public utilities.

When an area is undergoing redevelopment, council may adopt an area redevelopment plan, (ARP) which, in addition to providing guidelines, may result in a redevelopment levy being used to acquire land for park, school, or recreation purposes in the redevelopment area.

Listing and Publishing of Policies [s.638.2]

Every municipality must be more transparent with their planning documentation. They must list, publish and keep updated the list of all planning policy documents, and describe how they relate to each other and to the municipality's statutory plans. The information must be published on their municipal website. A development authority, subdivision authority, subdivision and development appeal board, the Municipal Government Board (MGB) or a court shall not have regard to any policy unless it is listed and published. All documents must be listed and published effective January 1, 2019.

Land Use Bylaws and Development Decisions [s. 639, 640, 640.1, 641, 642, 683.1, 685, and 686]

All municipalities must have a land use bylaw (LUB). This bylaw provides a specific means of implementing the policies that are expressed in a general way in the municipal development plan. The bylaw provides for a system of development permits and divides the municipality into land use districts or 'zones', including direct control, prescribing permitted and discretionary uses for land, and development standards for each land use district. Council must establish a development authority to administer the development approval process. Development decisions may be appealed to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board (SDAB).

Subdivision [s. 623, 652, 653.1, 654, 655, and 678]

Dividing a piece of land into two or more parcels generally requires approval from a subdivision authority. The authority ensures that the land to be subdivided is appropriate for its proposed use. Council must establish the subdivision authority by bylaw and delegate powers in accordance with the MGA. Subdivision decisions can be appealed to the SDAB, or in certain situations to the Municipal Government Board. While a subdivision is approved by the subdivision authority, any changes to zoning that accompany the subdivision must be brought to council for approval by bylaw.

Subdivision or Development Agreements [s. 650 and 655]

Prior to a subdivision or development having full approval, your municipality may require a developer to enter into a subdivision or development agreement as a condition of approval. These agreements may address construction or payment of a road, walkway, public utility, parking/loading and unloading facilities, off-site levies and security to ensure that the terms of the agreement are carried out. In addition, requirements of inclusionary housing may be addressed in the agreement. After legal consultation, administration will bring the agreement forward to council for acceptance, after which the application can be given final approval.

Subdivision and Development Appeal Board [s. 627, 678, and 686]

A municipal council is required to establish a subdivision and development appeal board (SDAB) to act as a quasi-judicial body to deal with subdivision, development and stop order appeals. Members of council cannot form the majority on the SDAB or intermunicipal board.

A council that establishes a SDAB must appoint a clerk as a designated officer. Members and clerks must have completed the mandatory training. Appeal matters are addressed by the MGB. This sets out the jurisdictional matters that the board must act within. The SDAB must hold a public hearing to deal with an appeal.

Intermunicipal Collaboration Framework (Part 17.2)

The purpose of this part is to require municipalities to develop an intermunicipal collaboration framework among two or more municipalities to provide for the integrated and strategic planning, delivery and funding of intermunicipal services, to steward scarce resources efficiently in providing local services, and to ensure municipalities contribute funding to services that benefit their residents.

This framework is mandatory and must be in place within three years of proclamation and reviewed every five years to ensure continued application of the documents.

Municipal Collaboration and Mediation (s. 690)

Alberta Municipal Affairs Intermunicipal Relations team provides assistance in building collaboration and relationships between and within municipalities across Alberta. The team helps municipalities assess what resources and support you may need to collaborate on, or resolve, any internal or intermunicipal issue. In the next three years, this team will have a specific focus to help municipalities create their Intermunicipal Collaboration Frameworks (ICFs) by assisting with access to resources and supports such as facilitation, mediation, and tools.

The Intermunicipal Relations team:

- works with municipalities to assess the most appropriate tools, services and supports they need to proactively collaborate on, or resolve, any internal or intermunicipal issue;
- works with municipalities to ensure that all the necessary preparations are in place to convene a collaborative or dispute resolution process;
- provides a roster of qualified private sector mediators available to work with municipalities;
- works with municipalities to design collaboration, relationship building and dispute resolution training programs, including preparation for collaboration, mediation, internal communication and public participation;
- facilitates applications for grant funding towards the cost of retaining private sector facilitators, mediators or consultants.

It is important to note that the MGA requires municipalities to attempt negotiations and mediation before bringing an inter-municipal land use dispute or a contested annexation to the Municipal Government Board. The Intermunicipal Relations team provides support for municipalities wanting or needing to go to mediation for an annexation of intermunicipal land use dispute.

Municipalities can use facilitated negotiations for any inter-municipal service, issue or dispute at any stage in their negotiations.

Economic Development

The Economic Developers Association of Alberta (EDA Alberta) is an incorporated, non-profit organization formed to enhance the economic development profession in the province, providing an active network of communication, information and education. EDA coordinates programs and workshops for municipal councils and economic development committee members to help communities with their economic plans by creating an awareness of what they can do on the local front to enhance their economic development activities. The website is www.edaalberta.ca.

Provincial Legislation

This list is not all-inclusive; however, these additional Acts may impact a municipality.

Alberta Land Stewardship Act (ALSA) sets out the legal basis for regional land use planning in Alberta. It requires decision-making and local government bodies to review their regulatory instruments then make any necessary changes to ensure these instruments comply with the regional plan.

Cemeteries Act controls the disposition of human remains, ensures cemeteries meet requirements of local authorities, and protects consumers who invest in pre-need cemetery supplies and services. Awareness may be necessary as some municipalities own and operate cemeteries.

Emergency Management Act (EMA) governs measures taken during an emergency and requires municipalities to establish an emergency plan. It outlines the roles and responsibilities of the Minister of Municipal Affairs, the provincial government, and local authorities. The EMA provides the authority for the granting of additional powers during a state of emergency or a state of local emergency and governs the coming into force, expiration, and termination of these states of emergency.

Employment Standards Code establishes Alberta's minimum standards of employment in many areas including payment of wages, hours of work, overtime, vacation and holidays, leaves and termination of employment. It establishes the processes by which an employee can seek recourse if the standards have not been met.

Forest and Prairie Protection Act enables the protection of the forests and prairies of Alberta from wildfire. This legislation makes the chief elected official, each councillor and the chief administrative officer, by virtue of their offices, fire guardians in and for the municipal district except that part of the municipal district that is within a forest protection area.

Highways Development and Protection Act delineates the responsibilities and powers of the authorities that oversee the various categories of highways and roads in Alberta. It also prohibits and limits certain developments near highways and roads.

Interpretation Act sets out rules for interpreting legislation (various presumptions, definitions, rules of statutory interpretation and construction) that apply to all Alberta Acts and regulations, and who can act under legislation.

Land Titles Act details the legal mechanism for registration of land related documents and establishes priority between them. The government guarantees the title and a fund is established to compensate people who have been deprived of an interest in land, for situations such as an error made by the Registrar, fraud or forgery.

Local Authorities Elections Act (LAEA) governs municipal elections by establishing procedures around campaigning, voting and counting of votes.

Oaths of Office Act applies to oaths of allegiance, official oaths and judicial oaths. All elected officials must take an oath of office before they can fulfill their duties. It provides that any person required by statute to make an oath is permitted to make a solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath.

Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHS) sets out the framework for health and safety in Alberta's workplaces, including municipalities.

Peace Officers Act establishes the roles of peace officers (non-police) in Alberta and allows different levels of government the opportunity to obtain peace officer status for community safety enhancement and specialized law enforcement needs. This act establishes the requirement for authorization of employers and appointment of peace officers including the application process, suspension/cancellations, employer liability and responsibility, the role of the Director of Law Enforcement, oversight process and the mechanism for public complaints. It also provides the offences and penalties.

Safety Codes Act establishes a unifying framework for the administration of ten safety disciplines which each have their own safety codes and standards. The Public Safety Division of Alberta Municipal Affairs administers the framework, including development of codes and standards adopted in Alberta, providing advice and technical support to the public, industry, all municipalities and the Safety Codes Council, monitoring the work of municipalities, corporations and agencies that administer the Act or provide services under the Act, and managing agencies under contract to provide services such as permits and inspections for municipalities that do not administer the Act in their jurisdiction.

Traffic Safety Act promotes safety on the province's highways, the definition of which includes any street, road, sidewalk or bridge that the public is ordinarily entitled or permitted to use.

Weed Control Act defines the actions municipalities in Alberta must take with respect to weed control, issuances of notices and the conditions necessary for appeal.

Alberta Queen's Printer is the official publisher of Alberta's laws and the Alberta Gazette, and partners with Government of Alberta ministries to produce and distribute various government publications. The most current legislation is available for purchase, viewing or printing at www.qp.alberta.ca.

Domestic Trade Agreements

Alberta municipalities are party to two trade agreements: the New West Partnership Trade Agreement (NWPTA) and the Agreement on Internal Trade (AIT). Through these agreements, the province has sought to reduce trade barriers, enhance labour mobility and open investment opportunities for Albertans and Alberta businesses. The Canadian Free Trade Agreement (CFTA) came into effect on July 1, 2017 replacing the Agreement on Internal Trade (AIT) that had been in force since 1995.

More information on how the procurement practices of Alberta municipalities are impacted by these trade agreements is available at economic.alberta.ca/trade-agreements.asp.

- 3.2 The Code of Conduct is to be given a broad and liberal interpretation in accordance with the applicable legislation. It is not possible to write a Code of Conduct that covers every scenario and, accordingly, Members are to be guided by and conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the spirit and intent of this Code.

Council may only act by bylaw or resolution passed at a Council meeting held in public at which there is a quorum present. No Member shall, unless authorized by Council, attempt to bind the Municipality or give direction to employees in Administration, agents, contractors, consultants or other service providers or prospective vendors to the Municipality.
- 6.2 Members shall conduct and convey Council business and all their duties in an open and transparent manner other than for those matters which by law are authorized to be dealt with in a confidential manner in an "in-camera" session, and in so doing, allow the public to view the process and rationale which was used to reach decisions and the reasons for taking certain actions.

- 6.4 Notwithstanding 6.3 Council acknowledges and respects that Members have the legal right to express their opinions, whether those opinions are complimentary or critical, subject to those limits prescribed by law. - 7.3 A Member must not encourage disobedience of any bylaw, policy or procedure of the Municipality in responding to a member of the public, as this undermines public confidence in the Municipality and in the rule of law.

8 Respectful Interactions with Members, Staff, the Public and Others

- 8.1 Members shall act in a manner that demonstrates fairness, respect for individual differences and opinions, and an intention to work together for the common good and in furtherance of the public interest.

Members must not:

- a) disclose or release by any means to any member of the public, including the media, any confidential information acquired by virtue of their office, unless the disclosure is required by law or authorized by Council to do so;
- b) access or attempt to gain access to confidential information in the custody or control of the Municipality unless it is necessary for the performance of the Member's duties and is not otherwise prohibited by Council, and only then if the information is acquired through appropriate channels in accordance with applicable Council bylaws and policies;

9.3 Confidential information includes information in the possession of, or received in confidence by, the Municipality that the Municipality is prohibited from disclosing pursuant to legislation, court order or by contract, or is required to refuse to disclose under FOIP or any other legislation, or any other information that pertains to the business of the Municipality, and is generally considered to be of a confidential nature, including but not limited to information concerning:

If a motion is not made at the meeting indicated in the notice, it will be removed from the agenda and may only be made by a new notice of motion.

If a Council Member who has heard the question refuses to vote, their name shall be recorded accordingly and they shall be deemed to have infringed this Bylaw and the Municipal Government Act, but the decision of the question on the other members' votes shall be valid.
