

From Redwater

The Town of Redwater is please to welcome Tim Duhamel as our Interim Chief Administrative Officer (CAO). Duhamel is the founder and president of Bloom Centre of Municipal Education, and he brings 24 years of experience working with municipalities across Western Canada to the position. Mayor Mel Smith commented “He will be helping us recruit a new CAO while he provides us with the administrative leadership we need right now. The wealth of experience Tim and his team brings will benefit us greatly.”

“I am very happy to have the Bloom team supporting a progressive and insightful Council in the Town of Redwater,” say Duhamel. “I look forward to helping support the Town administration and Council over the next few months and with the recruitment of the future CAO.”

From Bloom

Bloom is please to announce that Tim Duhamel will be working as the Interim Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) for the Town of Redwater. Tim is the founder and president of Bloom Centre of Municipal Education, and he brings 24 years of experience working with municipalities across Western Canada to the position. He will be helping the town recruit a new CAO while he provides them with administrative support during the recruitment process.

“I am very happy to have the Bloom team supporting a progressive and insightful Council in the Town of Redwater,” say Duhamel. “I look forward to helping with the recruitment of their future CAO.”

Rest assured that all scheduled Bloom commitments, workshops and courses are going forward as announced with many more to come!

Short Bio

Tim Duhamel is the founder and president of Bloom Centre of Municipal Education.

Tim is a municipal veteran whose career has spanned over 24 years. He has been a proud member of GFOA Alberta since 1998. Tim’s passion is creating educational material and conducting lectures for municipal professionals. He has lectured as far away as Kiev Ukraine for the Federation of Canadian Municipalities. Tim is the lead creator of education material and course delivery for the Canadian Association of Government Finance Officers.

Tim’s municipal consulting practice has clients across Western Canada with ongoing projects ranging from mentorship, in-house training, and strategic planning.

Long Bio

Tim Duhamel is the founder and president of Bloom Centre of Municipal Education.

Tim is a municipal veteran whose career has spanned over 24years. He has been a proud member of GFOA Alberta since 1998. Tim’s passion is creating educational material and conducting lectures for municipal professionals. He has lectured as far away as Kiev Ukraine for the Federation of Canadian Municipalities. Tim is the lead creator of education material and course delivery for the Canadian Association of Government Finance Officers and delivers consulting, training and lectures Canada Wide.

Tim is the former:

- Manager of Financial Planning for Strathcona County
- Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Bruderheim
- General Manager of Community and Protective Services for the City of Spruce Grove